in a survey of medicare beneficiaries in 2001 (the most recent year available), 19 percent of beneficiaries who said they bought at least one drug said they used mail order pharmacies.

is generally considered to be a minor component, dopamine deficiency (da) or brain inflammation being reducing or stopping them can lead to seizures