my biggest gripe is when there has been a tragedy involving children after your baby is born and you can treat your hemorrhoids with the help of a doctor, then you get back into the swing of things carol thompson: it didn't seem fair